To the ones we called it in with and the ones we write to across the globe,
Happy 2020!

We hosted an 80's Dance party last night, and boy we are still hyped. As usual, we were swamped and pushed our prep to the limit. A series of furious tape runs, turning table-tops into cassettes, strangely tough calls on the polka dot wallpaper and a makeshift disco ball later, we managed to redeem ourselves, as usual. Well you know us. Out here we flex hard, only 'cause we work harder.

For the ones travelling, we hope y'all are still tapping into the bottomless thrills of travel. And for the ones back home, we're sending you seaside sunsets from Goa.

While we don't necessarily buy into the glamour around resolutions, we don't mind some good old introspection. '19 for us, highlighted a truth of so much gravity, a truth we already know, but always seem to overlook, that when you're in the business of your passion, no win is too small. So there's a thought to walk into '20 with.

'Til next time,

THC
